HUMAN SERVICES

PURSUE YOUR DEGREE IN HUMAN SERVICES AT POST UNIVERSITY!

The Bachelor of Science in Human Services from Post University is designed to help you develop the strategic insights and practical skills you could use to pursue a brighter future for you and those you seek to serve. If you have a service-oriented heart, this degree program covers relevant concepts, theories, systems, and policies affecting the various fields of human services to help you explore ways to make a positive impact for others, from empowering individuals to advocating for whole communities.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN HUMAN SERVICES

OFFERED ONLINE AND ON CAMPUS.

In this program, you will have the opportunity to explore the ins and outs of the field of human services to help you build a foundational understanding of case management techniques, prevention theories and concepts, and human development. The curriculum in this 120-credit-hour program covers an introduction to human services, multicultural issues, case management, research methods in social sciences, and more. In addition to core insights in human services, your program offers the opportunity to customize your education to your goals with your choice of four concentration options, including:

- > Child and Family Studies
- > Counseling
- > Criminal Justice
- > Diversity, Social Justice, and Multicultural Practice

Disclaimer: The Bachelor of Science in Human Services degree is not designed to fulfill the educational requirements for any professional credential, such as licenses for clinical psychology or therapy.

Post University assists in researching and providing information regarding licensure; however, each state has different requirements for such licensure outside of the required education. Such state requirements may include licensure exams, background checks, certain work experience, and more. It is ultimately the responsibility of each student to manage their own licensure process and to ensure that all requirements are met in order for the student to obtain licensure. Post University does not speak on behalf of any licensing board or body and does not guarantee licensure. Requirements for licensure are subject to change without notice.

Post UNIVERSITY® EST.1890

Your BHMT-Approved Education Provider

Post University is institutionally accredited by the New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE). The information printed in this material is accurate as of February 2024. For the most up-to-date information about admission requirements, tuition, scholarships, and more, visit Post.edu.